

Retail Solutions formalizes partnership with CIS Logistic consulting group and continues aggressive expansion in Russia and CIS

February 4th, 2011

Moscow, Russia – Retail Solutions LLC, a leading European retail advisory and consulting advisor, disclosed today that it recently formalized its partnership with Grigori Nazaryan, PhD, Managing Director of Fablog CIS, a logistics consulting and service provider for complete logistics solutions. Art Vartanian, Managing Partner of Retail Solutions commented: “Our objective at Retail Solutions is to provide the best advice to our clients whether through our team members or outside expertise. Our partnership enables Grigori to work under the Retail Solutions umbrella offering supply chain solutions to our retail clients.”

This recent move was made to strengthen the Retail Solutions brand in Europe. Commenting on this agreement, Mr. Nazaryan stated: “Many of our logistic projects require the involvement of other consultants whom understand the intricacies of the retail supply chain. The knowledge base at Retail Solutions enables both parties to leverage our expertise across the retail chain”.

“With an increased focus on operational efficiencies to drive cash-flow, this partnership further strengthens the Retail Solutions team and is the next logical step to further develop within the region.” commented Patrick Hopper, Partner of Retail Solutions.

About:

Retail Solutions was founded in 2002 to provide professional advisory and consulting services for retail companies and banks, funds, private equity parties that invest in retail. Services are targeted to chain store retailers and are broken down into five general categories; Big Picture Retail, Retail Operations, Financial, Supply Chain and Partnering.

GRIGORI NAZARYN PH.D. is Managing Director for Fablog consulting operating in Armenia and the CIS markets. Fablog-Consulting is a German logistics consulting and engineering firm specializing in logistics planning.